Frisco Police Arrest Local Residents on Drug Charges

May 26, 2009 (Frisco TX.)

The Frisco Police Department arrested Leonid A. Demine (W/M, 34 YOA) and Elizabeth Ann McClellan (W/F, 24 YOA) on Wednesday, May 20th, 2009, following a tip from Dads and Mad Moms Against Drug Dealers (DAMMADD). DAMADD is a non-profit organization that pays cash rewards for information that leads to arrests and convictions in drug cases. Demine and McClellan were arrested at their residence in the 14500 block of Alstone in Frisco. They have been charged with two counts of Manufacture/Delivery of a Controlled Substance and one count of Possession of a Controlled Substance. Among the illegal drugs found in the residence were GHB, methamphetamine, and cocaine. The amount of GHB found, over 400 grams, carries a minimum sentence of 15 years upon conviction. Total bond for Demine was set at $550,000 and total bond for McClellan was set at $150,000. Frisco Police Chief Todd Renshaw wishes to thank DAMMADD and all police officers and civilian employees that were involved in the arrests of Demine and McClellan.
